Mr. D. A. Sullivan
National Military-Industrial Conference
140 South Dearborn Street
Chicago 3, Illinois

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

You flatter me in your letter of 7 August 1961 when you request my guidance and assistance as to whom you should invite and what subjects should be covered by the Institute for American Strategy in your proposed Conference in cooperation with the International Trade Fair in Chicago in 1962.

I regret that I may not be helpful in this instance. I feel it is outside my area of competence.

Thank you for the copy of the program of your Conference of last April and for the other literature that you enclosed.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
